Luke 24:13-35

Two of Jesus’ friends were very sad. They were sad because Jesus had died. The two friends slowly walked down a road. They were walking from the big city of Jerusalem to the little town of Emmaus (eh-MAY-uhs).

As they walked, they talked about Jesus. They talked about the sad day when Jesus died. They wondered about the stories they had heard that Jesus was alive again. How could Jesus be alive? They did not know what to think!

As the two walked along, a man came up and walked with them. The man asked them, “What are you talking about?”

“Don’t you know what has happened?” one friend asked. “We thought Jesus was our king. But some people who hated Jesus killed Him. Jesus is dead.” The friends were sad.

The man continued to walk and talk with them. When they came to the town of Emmaus, it was time to eat. The two friends said to the man, “Stay and eat with us.” The man did stay with them.

When the dinner was ready, the man picked up some bread and prayed. Then He took pieces of the bread and handed them to the two friends. Right then the two friends knew the man was Jesus! They were so excited! Jesus is alive! But suddenly, Jesus was gone.

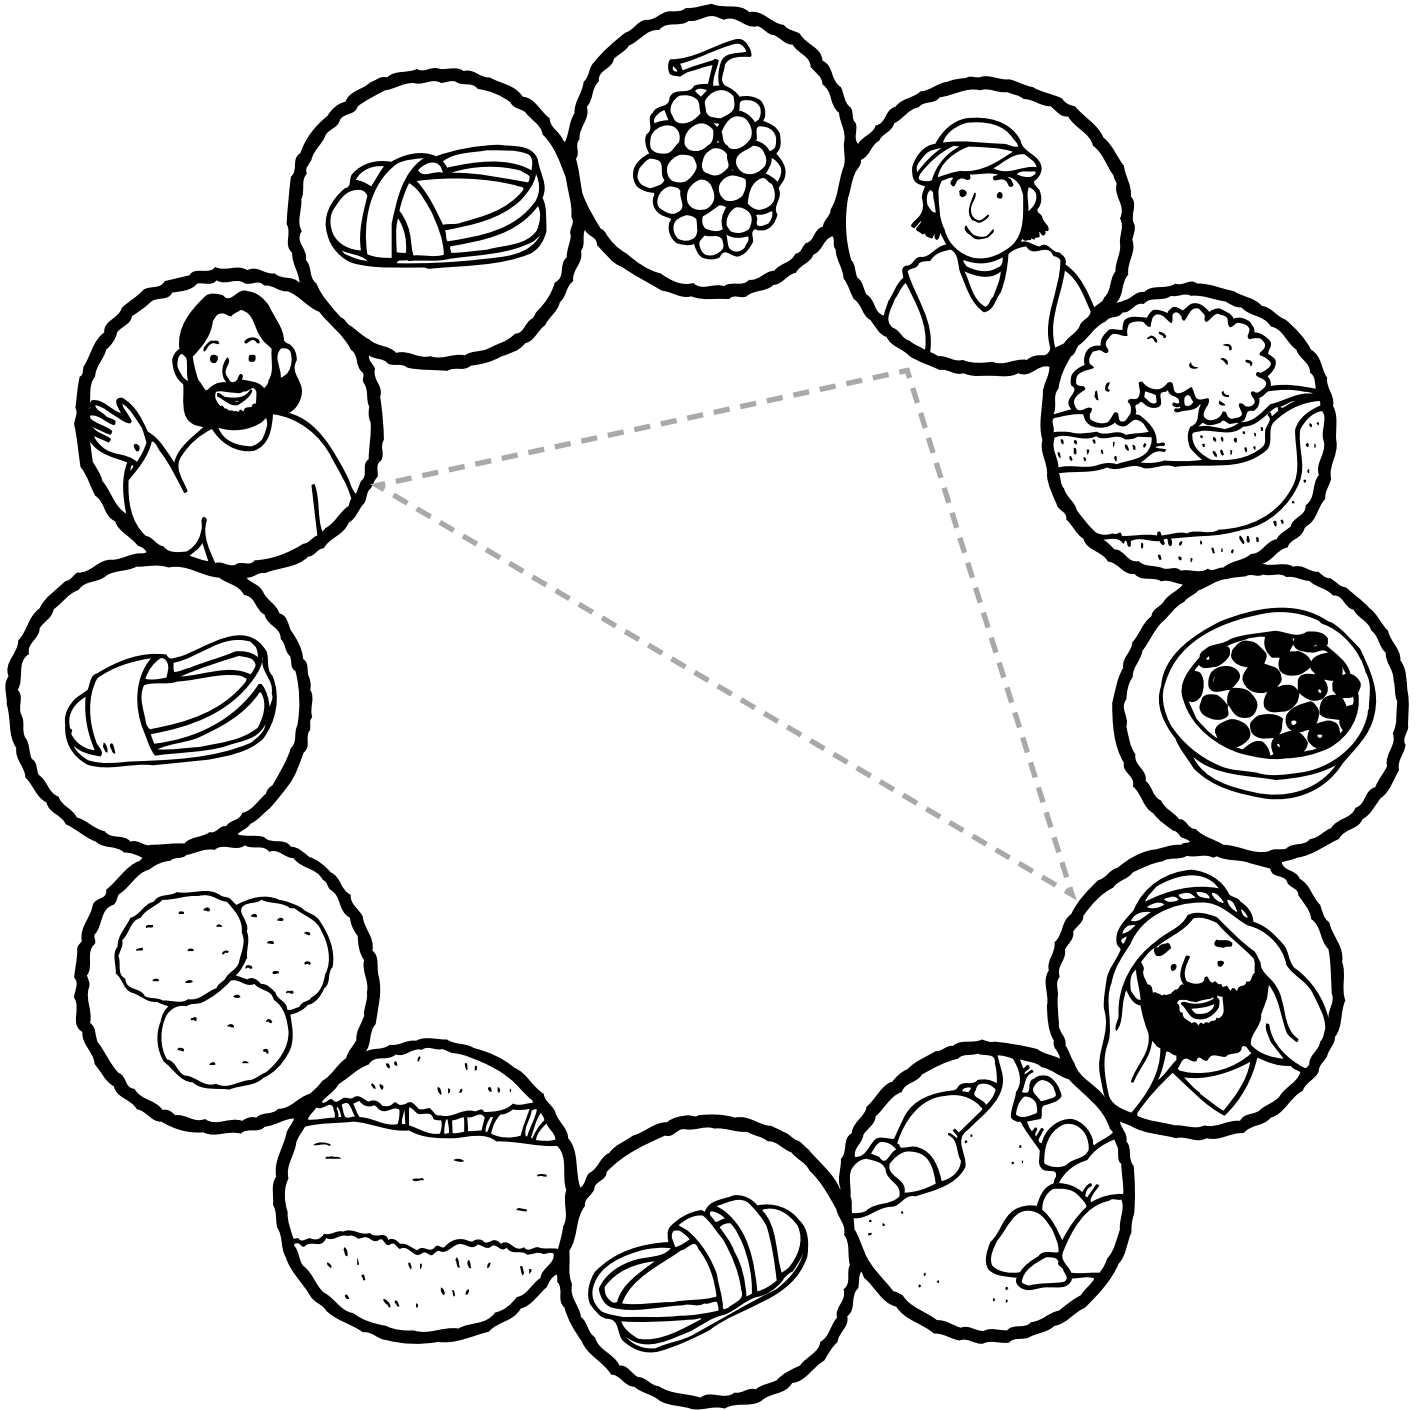

Even though it was nighttime, the two friends hurried back to Jerusalem. They found other friends of Jesus. The two friends told the others, “Jesus is alive!” Everyone who heard this good news was very happy.

Draw lines to connect the 3 things that belong in each group.

Jesus walked and talked with His friends. They were glad Jesus was with them. Jesus is with us, too. The Bible says, "Thanks be to God for Jesus." (See 2 Corinthians 9:15.)

Use the same color to color each group of 3 pictures. Then draw 1 more picture that belongs with each group.
