Matthew 28:16-20

Suddenly, while they were talking, Jesus was in the room with them—just like that! His friends were SO surprised that they did not know what to say!

“Don’t be afraid,” said Jesus. “It’s Me.” His friends must have smiled. They weren’t frightened anymore. Jesus was with them again!

Jesus was with His friends for many more days. He taught His friends things God wanted them to know. Jesus’ friends were SO happy that Jesus was with them again. They knew Jesus loved and cared for them.

But soon it was time for Jesus to go back to heaven. One day, Jesus and His friends walked out into the country. He said to them, “I want you to go and tell everyone about Me. And remember: I will be with you always!” Jesus wanted His friends to know that He would always care for them.

Then Jesus began to go up, up, up from the ground. His friends watched Jesus rise up into the sky! Soon a cloud covered Jesus and His friends couldn’t see Him anymore. But Jesus’ friends weren’t sad. They were happy because they knew Jesus was alive, even though they couldn’t SEE Him. And they knew Jesus had promised to always care for them.

The friends walked back to Jerusalem. They went into the Temple. They sang praises to God! They prayed and talked about God! They worshiped God and were happy because they knew Jesus was alive. They knew He would care for them!
