

Jeremiah Wrote About God

Bible Phrase: God told Jeremiah to write His words.
Jeremiah 36:2

Scripture Reference: Jeremiah 36:1-4,22-24,27-28,32

Bible Story: Jeremiah was one of God's special helpers. One day God said, "Get a scroll. Write all the words I have told you."

God had told Jeremiah how He wanted the people to live. God asked Jeremiah to write His words on a scroll so that the people would never forget them.

Jeremiah asked his friend Baruch to help. Baruch wrote on the scroll all the words God had spoken to Jeremiah.

When the scroll was written, one of the king's helpers read it to the king. The king did not like what the Bible scroll said. He became angry. The king cut the scroll into pieces and threw it into the fire.

God told Jeremiah to get another scroll and write all the words again. Baruch helped Jeremiah write the words on the scroll. The words Jeremiah wrote are in the Bible.

Parents:

- Talk with your child about how God told people to write His words. Find Jeremiah 36 in your Bible and point to Jeremiah's name. Point to God's name also (see Jeremiah 35).
- Pray with your child, thanking God that we can read His words that Jeremiah and other people wrote down.
